

First Grade News

Our School Community

Mrs. Romero's Class

November 2013

Parents

By Ella Still

Parents are important to our school. Parents help in art with putting things out and helping students. Parents pick up kids at the end of the day. Parents get kids ready for school. Parents help all over the school.

The Power Hour Team

By Emma Schubach

The power hour team teaches us things we don't know. They do word work. Each group is 15 minutes long. We do sentences in writing. The power hour team is fun. Thank you Mr. McFarlane, Mrs. Aragon, Mrs. Wiley and Mrs. Mancini.

The Student Council

By Max Dunn

The Student Council talks with Mrs. Hunt. The student council gives speeches. September 2nd—30th we had a raffle for a treatment center. The student council is mostly 7th and 8th graders.

Mrs. Hunt

By Gizele Garay

Mrs. Hunt is our principal. She helps at drop-off and pick-up and lunch recess. I see Mrs. Hunt everyday. She tells us to play tag on the grass. Mrs. Hunt loves us.

Fr. Andrew

by Hudson Ross

Fr. Andrew works for the Church. He reads the gospel at Mass. Fr. Andrew talks about God at Mass. Fr. Andrew likes squirrels and showed us walnuts from his tree. He is our priest at St. Ambrose.

First Grade Teacher

By Lillian Cimborra

My mom is a 1st grade teacher, but she does not teach me. It's ok. She teaches math and she also plays games. She is fun. I know she works really hard.

Deacon George

by Fletcher Davenport

We see Deacon George at school masses. He talked about lost and found things and you shouldn't hit the snooze button on God. He is my favorite part of the AM on Friday.

Students

by Astrid Viollet

Students can do a lot of work. They can read and write. They play outside. They pray at mass. They eat in the cafeteria. I like being a Cosgriff student.

Mrs. Romero

By Addi Ballard

Mrs. Romero is a 1st grade teacher. Mrs. Romero keeps us safe. Mrs. Romero gives us homework. Mrs. Romero talks to parents about kids. Mrs. Romero is also a power hour teacher. She also taught my sisters. I am glad she stuck around.

Miss Tammie

By Jack Freeman

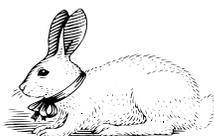

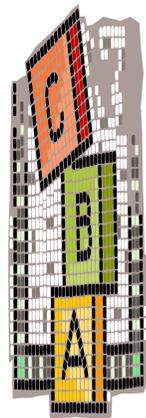

If you are early to school you can go to EDP. We get to stay at EDP if parents are late. Miss Tammie works on the computer. She signs people out of EDP. We get to watch videos. I like Miss Tammie.

Mrs. Lester

By Zachary Farr

Mrs. Lester was my old kindergarten teacher. She has a seating chart on the carpet. Mrs. Lester has snacks for her students if they do not have any. Mrs. Lester has choices of snacks. When we were bad we had to do one hundred charts. Mrs. Lester's room is by the art room. She helped us learn a lot of stuff.

Kindergarten Memories

By Beau Saber

Mrs. Lacombe was my kindergarten teacher last year. She's also a drama club teacher. Mrs. Lacombe had a pet named Thumper. Thumper is a bunny, and he is shiny and white. Kindergarten was a fun place to learn.

Preschool Fun

By Ellie Wright

Mrs. Lee is a preschool teacher. She is funny. Mrs. Lee works with four and five year olds. She does centers and one of them is a play area. I am glad she was by preschool teacher.

Mrs. Barker

By Mehmo Murphy

Mrs. Barker is our office manager. It's Mrs. Barker's first year. Mrs. Barker opens doors. Mrs. Barker helps people. Mrs. Barker is Amelia A.'s grandma. I like seeing Mrs. Barker in the office.

Mrs. Soto

by Jaxon Soto

Mrs. Soto helps in the office. She gives Innisbrook prizes. She answers the phone a lot everyday. She gives tours of the school. Mrs. Soto has two kids, one in 3rd, and one 6th. I'm glad my Aunt Brooke helps our school.

Elements of Art

by Amelia Conner

Mrs. Cullen is our art teacher. She helps us do lines. Once we made swordfish and whales, and now we are painting. We can earn a P.A.T., we get to do anything at art. I love Mrs. Cullen's art class.

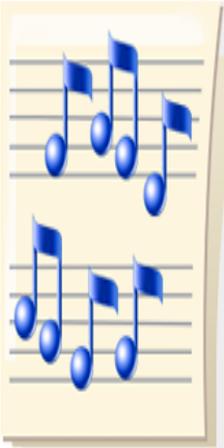

Ms. Brinkerhoff

By Rocco Wharton

Ms. Brinkerhoff is our computer teacher. She controls the computers. She helps us learn typing and the home row. It is her first year at Cosgriff. She helps all teachers with smartboards. There are rules in the computer lab. Ms. Brinkerhoff helps us learn.

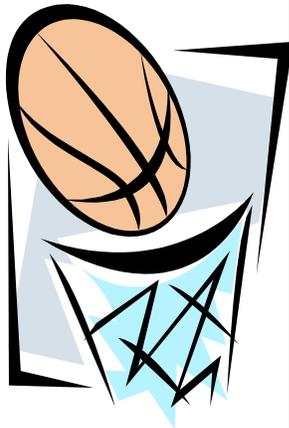

Our Music Man

by Atticus Kittrell

Mr. Asman is our music teacher. We play a lot of games with songs, like "Hickory, Dickory Dock". Mr. Asman works by the church. We play instruments, like the wood blocks and xylophones. Mr. Asman is funny and talented.

Mr. Huntzinger

By Giacomo Stevanoni

Mr. Huntzinger is our choir teacher. He helps with songs. He helped us with 'My Country Tis of Thee'. He plays the organ and piano. Mr. Huntzinger gives us mass aids at choir. He is my favorite choir teacher.

Mr. Allen

By Harper Parrish

Mr. Allen teaches us football, soccer, basketball, and baseball. Mr. Allen keeps us healthy. He teaches us to be a good sport. He teaches us games. He is a great part of Friday.

