

2014 Salt Lake Valley Science and Engineering Fair Awards

Junior Division (7th-8th Grade):

Zack Shubella: 2nd place Behavioral and Social Sciences
Broadcom MASTERS™

Billy Riley: 1st place Biochemistry

Christopher Clyne: 1st place Engineering: Electrical and Mechanical Special Award from the Utah Department of Transportation
Broadcom MASTERS™

Sante Di Sera: 1st place Energy and Transportation
Broadcom MASTERS™

Sam Schmiett: 3rd place Environmental Management
4H SET Aspiring Engineer Camp Scholarship

Emily Rougelot: 2nd place Medicine and Health Sciences
Broadcom MASTERS™

Anna Shum: 1st place Physics and Astronomy
Special Award from the National Council of Women in Technology
Broadcom MASTERS™

Avery Young: 1st place Plant Sciences
Broadcom MASTERS™

Anna Drossos: Special award from the United States Navy

Highlights:

- Five 1st place, two 2nd place and one third place
- Broadcom MASTERS™ award winners finished in the top 10% of the approximate 200 junior division projects in the fair from the Salt Lake, Tooele, Granite, Park City, Murray School Districts and the Catholic Diocesan Schools
- Anna Shum received the highest score in the junior division
- Zach, Christopher, Sante, Emily, Anna and Avery will compete in the Broadcom MASTERS™ national science fair competition for an opportunity to present their projects in Washington, DC and earn $25,000 in scholarships